this volume encompasses the whole christian orthodox tradition from 1200 to the present its central theme is the survival of orthodoxy against the odds into the modern era it celebrates the resilience shown in the face of hostile regimes and social pressures in this often neglected period of orthodox history this book provides an up to date comprehensive overview of eastern christian churches in europe the middle east america africa asia and australia written by leading international scholars in the field it examines both orthodox and oriental churches from the end of the cold war up to the present day the book offers a unique insight into the myriad church state relations in eastern christianity and tackles contemporary concerns opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between orthodox catholic and greek catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on eastern christianity in the twenty first century now available in paperback this companion offers an unparalleled survey of the history theology doctrine worship art culture and politics that make up the churches of eastern christianity covers both byzantine traditions such as the greek russian and georgian churches and oriental traditions such as the armenian coptic and syrian churches brings together an international team of experts to offer the first book of its kind on the subject of eastern christianity contributes to our understanding of recent political events in the middle east and eastern europe by providing much needed background information may be used alongside the blackwell dictionary of eastern christianity 1999 for a complete student resource containing over 700 articles this dictionary allows the reader to explore eastern christian civilization with its cultural and religious riches the articles are written by a team of 50 international contributors including leading historians theologians linguists philosophers patrologists musicians and scholars of liturgy and iconography with approximately 200 to 300 million adherents worldwide orthodox christianity is among the largest branches of christianity yet it remains relatively understudied this book examines the rich and complex entanglements between orthodox christianity and globalization offering a substantive contribution to the relationship between religion and globalization as well as the relationship between orthodox christianity and the sociology of religion and more broadly the interdisciplinary field of religious studies while deeply engaged with history this book does not simply narrate the history of orthodox christianity as a world religion nor does it address theological issues or cover all the individual trajectories of each subgroup or subdivision of the faith orthodox christianity is the object of the analysis but author victor roudometof speaks to a broader audience interested in culture religion and globalization roudometof argues in favor of using globalization instead of modernization as the main theoretical vehicle for analyzing religion displacing secularization in order to argue for multiple hybridizations of religion as a suitable strategy for analyzing religious phenomena it offers orthodox christianity as a test case that illustrates the presence of historically specific but theoretically distinct glocalizations applicable to all faiths this book provides a comprehensive overview of the dynamics between eastern christianity and politics from the end of the second world war to the fall of communism covering 40 orthodox churches including diasporic churches in africa asia america and australia examines developments in the churches of east and west in the middle ages explores the theological and spiritual currents spreading from byzantium to the orthodox churches of the north presents the stories of the native eastern churches of egypt ethiopia syria armenia and georgia includes photos and index
